~Almost~ A Traditional Old English Pub

The Bag & Kettle—serving fine food and drink to the Sugarloaf area for almost 50 years—has often been compared to a fine English pub. While all affectionate flattery is graciously accepted, and most certainly appreciated, the management harbors certain reservations about being equated with most English pubs, the characteristics of which might not necessarily lend themselves to the western Maine mountain community. Our prominent, esteemed, and highly experienced research team of Reynolds, Jones, Roy, and Mulligan have recently completed an extensive study of the supposedly Anglo phenomenon, has concluded, and can unequivocally substantiate the following distinctions between the Bag & Kettle and your average English pub:

1. We are 3500 miles closer to Eustis.
2. We have good beer and wine.
3. We have cold beer and wine.
4. We have good food.
5. And generally, the language, while derived from English, is understandable (with the possible exception of certain locals at certain times).

And while Chaucer, Shakespeare, and Churchill still find themselves bandied about in Merry Olde England, the local repartee consists generally of the following non-exclusive dependable topics: skiing, golf, imbibing, and rhythm and blues... though not necessarily in that order.

Though we've only been in business a mere 50 or so years, we offer you 352 accumulated years of service from our top 10 dedicated professional employees.

An 18% gratuity will be added for parties of eight or more. Feel free to reward exceptional service accordingly.

Alpine Attitude Ales

50 years of brewing and going strong. Our elevation at Sugarloaf raises us high above all other eastern microbreweries. The clear, sparkling mountain waters that are used by our master brewer to enhance his exciting formulas give our patrons a brew experience both lofty and unique.

PICK POLE PALE ALE

4.9%

RIPSAW RED

6.3%

Red in color finishing with a touch of sweetness, and bright citrus and passionfruit flavors from the hops. Tastes great with the Shredder's Extreme Experience pizza.

BROWN BAG ALE

5.9%

A Bag classic, this rich and chocolatey brown ale is malty and smooth. Perfect to wash down a Bag Burger.

MAINE POTATO ALE

6.5%

Brewed with Aroostook County grown Caribou Russet potatoes, this full strength Amber Ale will stick to your ribs. Sip it with a Quad Melt.

UNCLE'S IMPERIAL STOUT

10%

A beer as legendary as the man himself, this massive Imperial Stout is a real winter warmer. Complements a Reuben quite nicely.

TROUT BROOK GOLD

4.9%

A light and golden German-style lager. Crisp and balanced, this all-around beer goes great with food or by itself. Drinks well with Mountain Chili.

BREWER'S CHOICE

ASK

This revolving hazy IPA features different hop profiles and occasionally fruit while always pleasing the palates of many beer drinkers. Try it with the P.L.T.!

ROTATING TAP

ASK

An option with a little bit of flair to be paired with everyone's hardest pow days, or any day where the beer has been earned. This well-balanced offering will leave you wanting another. Imbibe in tandem with a Gucci burger.

BACKCOUNTRY BLUEBERRY ALE

4.5%

This fruited wheat ale is made with wild Maine Blueberries giving it a hint of sweetness. Enjoy alongside the Super Quad Tenders.

"The bag has almost a cult following."
